

Dana joined Empire in 2019. She manages all volumetric accounting for the pipelines and terminal. Dana has worked in the oil and gas industry since 1993, assisting in various phases of the well life cycle for assets in Louisiana, Texas, Wyoming, and Pennsylvania. This knowledge, combined with her diverse technical capabilities, extensive computer experience, and excellent organizational skills, help Dana create value for Empire's ongoing and future projects.